

Honor Award for Glen Town Center

CGL was presented this award by the Village of Glenview and Oliver McMillian in special recognition for its extraordinary services associated with the sitework design and civil engineering portions of the overall Glen Town Center project which necessitated a tireless work effort, under extremely difficult deadlines and site requirements to achieve a site design that met the complex set of needs associated with this mixed use urban center.

